THIS VOLUME was prepared and edited by authority of the State of New Jersey, at the request of the New Jersey Historical Society.

Preface

1136427

THIS, THE SIXTH VOLUME of "Abstracts of Wills of New Jersey," was prepared from the originals on file in the Secretary of State's office at Trenton by the late Dr. Joseph H. Satterthwaite of that city, who is recognized as an authority in this field of work. The wills have been arranged in alphabetical form, edited and indexed by the Editor. In all instances the names of towns and hamlets, local designations, household furnishings, farm implements, etc., are spelled exactly as they appear in the original documents. Variations in spelling of proper names will often be found in the body of the same abstract, but in all cases the name of the testator or testatrix, which appears at the beginning of each abstract, conforms to the spelling of his or her signature.

Where wills, administrations, etc., were regularly recorded at Trenton, the book and page where the record may be found are stated. Where originals were simply filed as papers, but not recorded, as happened with many wills and inventories, the reference is given to the number of the filing case in which the original papers may be found. The books of record and all original papers in the matters noted are preserved in the Secretary of State's office at Trenton where they are accessible to the public and where one is certain to be accorded every courtesy by the official in charge.

The indexing of this volume follows the method adhered to by the late A. Van Doren Honeyman in preparing the preceding volume of this series. While many spellings have been rectified to conform with present-day practice the original spellings likewise appear. It is important to remember that the Index of Persons does not include the names of testators, etc., which are printed in bold face type throughout the volume and which are alphabetically arranged.

THE EDITOR.

1784, May 22. Affidavit made by Moses Frazee, who says that he wrote the will at the request of Mary Stites, and he saw her sign the same, and he, being one of the Executors named, at her request took the will in his possession for safe keeping; that soon after her death David Ross, Jr., came to his house, and they consulted about proving the will; that Ross informed him that Justice Stites said the will was of no force, as the effects were disposed of by Elijah Stites (her late husband) in his will; therefore they concluded not to have the will proved; he also says he never saw the will after the day it was executed, till some time in last March, when it was found by Moses Frazee, Jr., his son, among some old papers in the house that were tied with a string into a bundle.

1784, May 22. Affidavit made by Elijah Stites, in which he says that after the death of John Stites, one of the Executors of this deponent's father, Elijah Stites, deceased, a lease from said John Stites, as Executor of this deponent's father to Richard Scudder, was given to me and my brother, on which it was agreed by John Stites and David Ross, Jr., to cancel the will of Mary Stites, and, about 3 weeks ago, I gave the lease to Nehemiah Hand's son, Elihu, who told me he was sent by his father for the said David Ross.

1789, Aug. Term of Court. Statement by Thomas and Loes Stout, children of James Stout, Jr., devisee of James Stout, Sr. They object to the account of the Executor, as to a bond given by Thomas Stout to the Testator for £100. The said Thomas Stout, after the death of the Testator, got into his hands the said bond and other papers, previous to the proof of the will by Samuel Furman, and, when Furman demanded the papers, the said Thomas Stout would not deliver them up unless Furman would consent to erase from the appraisement the said bond, to which he consented in order to get the papers, and, when he got the other papers, he said he would prosecute Thomas Stout for the money, but he never did, and Furman said that the bond was given to the testator as consideration money for a mill bought of the Testator, that the Testator never had executed a deed to Thomas; but nothing of this is stated on the bond. The Executor is made chargeable for the amount of the bond.

Wife, Mary, the household goods and plate, which were her property at the time of our marriage; also my own household goods, except what I give to my children, to the amount of £100; also the sum of £1,200. Son, Thomas, to be put to a trade. Daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine, to be educated under care of the persons to whom their deceased mother had recommended them; that is to say, my sister, Sarah, to have the care of Elizabeth; and my sister, Catherine Greenleafe, to have the care of Catherine. Son, Bartholomew, the house and lot where I live, on the north side of High Street, and extends to Church Alley, which I bought of Joseph Jones; also a lot of land on the east side of Wissahiccon Road, joining land of James Logan; and 2 lots hereafter devised to my son, Thomas, and daughter, Catherine, it being part of 14 acres which I bought of William Fishbourn and Hannah Lloyd, as per a draught hereto annexed, and my son Bartholomew's share therein marked No. 1; also all the lot of land in Town of Salem, in New Jersey, of 16 acres, and 12 acres of drained marsh in the Town Marsh, which was given by my father-in-law, Bartholomew Wyatt, to my late wife, Sarah and myself, and the survivors of us; also my silver tankard and my apparel. Son, Richard, my water grist mill and land which I bought of William Craig, in Upper Alloways Precinct, in Salem Co.; also my plantation of 150 acres of land in the said Precinct, where Old Schutz did live, bought of John Ray; also 200 acres on Salem Creek in Hains Neck, in Salem Co., late the estate of John Barker, deceased, which I bought of Daniel Mestayer, Coroner of said Co., with 10 acres of marsh some miles lower down the said Creek, opposite to one Gil Johnson; also 10 acres of marsh joining the same, which I bought of Francis Dunlap; also 4 lots of land in Cumberland Co., which I bought of Robert Ramsey, surveyed and returned upon Warrants and the Proprietors' purchase money, or part thereof paid as per Receipts, one of said tracts lying in Wild Cat Valley, in Greenwood Township, another which includes the said Robert Ramsey's improvement in said Township, another joining James Rafter's land and situate in same Township, and the other joining John McCay's land, in Rye Township. Son, John, the plantation and marsh in Manington Township, in Salem Co., of about 640 acres, which I partly purchased and partly was given me by my father-in-law, Bartholomew Wyatt, deceased; also ½ of my cattle, horses, sheep and swine, which shall be at my farm at Wistarburg, otherwise called the glasshouse; also my desk and house clock at the same place; and he shall pay 150 ounces of gold, 75 thereof to my daughter, Elizabeth, when she is 18, and 75 to my daughter, Catherine, when she is 18. Son, Casper, the west moiety or ½ of my ground, where now a warehouse or store is erected, on the north side of High in the square between the 3rd and 4th Streets from Delaware, which was devised to me by my father, bounded east by George Hittner, deceased, north by Dr. Samuel Preston Moore, and east by the moiety of the same lot hereinafter devised to my son, Thomas; also land called Peach Grove, and the house thereon, in Northern Liberties, which was devised to me by my deceased father, and the lane leading between the land of William Shiply and one Coats's land to Pegs Run; also one moiety of that land in Lancaster Co., which my mother granted me; also my rights to lands on Pohopacta Creek, in Northampton Co., near where Frederick Heath did live, which I hold under 2 Propriatary Warrants, each for 150 acres; also my moiety of that land in Virginia, which one John Hough bought for my mother and myself of one Snickers; the deed I suppose was made in my name, but not in my possession, being sent back to Virginia for supplying some defects therein. It is not in my power to do justice to my mother than by declaring in my will that one moiety thereof was bought by her money, and that it belongs to her; also I give to him one of my shares of the effects of the Philadelphia Library. Son, Thomas, the east moiety of the lot on High Street, between 3rd and 4th streets; also the north moiety of that land on the east side of Wissahiccon Road, bounded north by his sister, Catherine, east by the late Dr. Kearsley, Sr., and north by widow Maddox; and he shall leave open a lane of 30 feet wide, running from the Wissahiccon as far as his brother Bartholomew's line, and 30 feet further by his sister Catherine's line; also one moiety of the land in Lancaster Co., which my mother granted me; also land in Alloways Creek Township, Salem Co., which I bought of John Willis, of 60 acres; also land on Alloways Creek and Deep Run, where John Camel lives, which I bought of Joseph Sharp, of about 76 acres; also 3 contiguous tracts in Upper Alloways Creek Precinct, about ½ mile from the next before mentioned tract, of about 142 acres, which I bought of one Ayres, the Sheriff, Edward Test, and one Walker; also my 2nd share in the effects of the Philadelphia Library Company. Daughter, Elizabeth, the west moiety of the lot on the north side of High Street, between 4th and 5th, in Philadelphia, which I bought of the heirs of Arnold Koster, deceased, bounded west by Humphrey Jones, deceased, and east by the other moiety devised to my daughter, Catherine; also land in Northern Liberties, on the east side of Wissahiccon Road, which I bought of Hugh Roberts and others, of 5 acres; also land in the Borough of Bristol, Bucks Co., which I bought of Doctor De Normandie; also ½ of my land in Virginia, which I bought of John Hough and Francis Hague; also 75 ounces of gold, when she is 18. Daughter, Catherine, the east moiety of said lot on High Street, between 4th and 5th streets; also ¼ of my land on Wissahiccon Road, bounded south by James Logan, east by the heirs of John Smith, north by her brother, Thomas, and west by her brother, Bartholomew; also ½ of my land in Virginia, which I bought of John Hough and Francis Hague; also 75 ounces of gold, when she is 18. Sons, Casper and Thomas, and daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine, rest of my plate. While the youngest of my children are minors, my Executors may rent, or, if they think best, may sell my Glasshouse and manufactory of glass, and the land called the Glasshouse tract, of 1,500 acres; also the 50 acres which I bought of Matthias Bollinger, in Upper Alloways Creek Precinct. Whereas, I have purchased of Samuel Wallis, sundry rights under the Proprietors of Pennsylvania to upwards of 7,000 acres, and have entered into articles of agreement with Robert Lettis Hooper and John Musser for the purchase of 29 tracts of land, located in the names of sundry persons in the said agreement, of which I, paying for the whole, am to have 21, and Hooper and Musser the rest, or ¼ part; and whereas, of the 29 tracts which I purchased, 3 are lost by prior Rights of 3 persons, should trouble arrise, the matter is to be submitted to arbitrators. # INDEXES

I. INDEX OF NAMES OF PERSONS
II. INDEX OF PLACE-NAMES

Index of Names of Persons

NOTE.—The names of testators, intestate persons or wards, printed in heavy type in the preceding text, are not repeated in this Index, as a rule.

Where surnames in common use to-day, or at least with well-known spellings, are unusually or curiously used in the text, the current modern spelling is substituted in this Index, to facilitate reference. An exception is made where proper spelling is uncertain. To a lesser extent the same rule has been applied to Christian names.
